The Department of Irish welcomes applications for the Henry Flood Research Scholarship for the academic year 2024-25. The research will be in Irish folklore, literature or the Irish language and the successful applicant will have a degree in Irish (grade II or I) as well as an impressive research plan. This is a one-year scholarship but it may run to two (exceptionally to three). Its value is €8,000 per year and it also includes payment of (EU level) fees.

Applications, including a research plan of approximately 1,000 words, a sample of the applicant's writing / work (e.g. dissertation, or a chapter from a postgraduate thesis), a summary of any postgraduate funding already received or applied for, a CV, and two references should be sent to the head of the Irish Department (emaccart@tcd.ie) and include a copy (cc) of the message for nibhraoc@tcd.ie.

The final date for receipt of applications is:
Friday, June 28th 2024
