DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION STATEMENT

In Italian, we welcome students from a range of diverse backgrounds and perspectives. We believe that diversity of ideas and knowledge enriches everyone's learning, provided we treat each other with dignity and respect. We strive to incorporate accessibility and inclusivity in our teaching and classrooms to ensure all students, regardless of disability, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, background or socio-economic status, have equitable opportunity to engage fully in their studies and achieve their learning goals. We endorse Trinity's Dignity and Respect Policy, Accessible Information Policy and other disability-specific policies and procedures, and the aims and objectives of the Trinity Inclusive Curriculum Project. Suggestions and feedback on how we can improve our accessibility and inclusivity are encouraged and appreciated, please contact Dr Igor Candido, Head of Department, at candidoi@tcd.ie.

GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION

1.1 Introduction

Welcome to the Department of Italian in Trinity College Dublin. We are a friendly and small department where we hope you will feel at home. You are joining a historic Department. We have one of the oldest traditions in Italian studies in the world. Italian has been taught here since 1776. Some very significant people have studied Italian in Trinity before you: the first President of Ireland, Douglas Hyde, who won the prize in Italian in 1884; playwright and Nobel prize winner Samuel Beckett, who studied Italian and French in the 1920s; the notable intellectual Walter Starkie, Professor of Spanish and Italian.

Capstone Project ITU44CPY (for Senior Sophisters)

Module Description

A distinctive cultural element in the final year is the preparation of an independent degree dissertation of 12,000 words (approx. 40 pages), excluding Footnotes, Bibliography, Appendix(es). The dissertation is normally written in English. You must choose the topic by June 2024, in the summer between the JS and SS years, as preparatory reading should be done during the vacation. Send an indicative title, rough abstract of your dissertation, the proposed contents by chapter, aims and scope of the dissertation, initial reference list, to Professor Clodagh Brook (brookc@tcd.ie) by 11th October 2024.

The dissertation is most successful when the topic focuses on a specific problem arising out of a student's own interests and is proposed by the student. We expect that a substantial proportion of the material they use will be Italian-related material. Members of staff are available to discuss possible topics and help to focus ideas. If you have a favourite genre and/or period, discuss this and obtain guidance towards some author or feature that will capture your interest. The sooner this discussion is begun the better. The title is subject to approval by the Department. The range of topics is wide even though, of course, only topics for which a supervisor is available will be approved. Consult your course co-ordinator initially about this, and then keep in touch with the supervisor assigned to you. Write a preliminary outline of your argument, then organize your work into chapters. Hand in drafts of individual chapters and then a draft of the entire work. The first complete draft of a dissertation must be submitted to the Department by Friday 7th February 2025. After corrections following the supervisor's comments, the final version, properly typed and corrected in every detail, must be submitted by Friday 14th March 2025.

In a dissertation, points must be illustrated clearly, supported by adequate reference to primary and secondary sources, and by a running argument including your motivated viewpoint. Check that each section is really part of your argument. Always point out exactly where you're going. Support your ideas by making appropriate reference to primary texts. Mention in brackets the abbreviated titles and page numbers from these texts each time you quote from them. An initial footnote should indicate what edition you are using or refer to the bibliography of your dissertation. Scan the scholarly books and articles on your title-subject and texts, looking for facts and arguments to throw light on your subject. Use them to help you define your terms, and to come to grips with the texts themselves. Quote where it helps your argument (even by contrast or disagreement). Acknowledge critical borrowings by author, work and page in the footnotes.

The organization and presentation of your work are also very important. The proper use and acknowledgement of critical material is essential. Quotations must be accurately cited. Follow conventions of presentation as in the MHRA Style Book, available online at http://www.mhra.org.uk/pdf/MHRA-Style-Guide-3rd-Edn.pdf. This publication includes also rules on how to present a bibliography. The basic rules in this respect are to indicate name and surname of author, title of work, name of journal, number of issue, year of publication, and, in case of books, place of edition and name of publisher. Titles of articles in journals and chapters from books are in inverted commas, whereas titles of books are in italics. Other style sheets may be used according to personal preference – e.g. Harvard sheet or Chicago sheet. Proof-reading must be precise. The dissertation must be written in clear and accurate English, correctly punctuated, without grammatical errors and with precise use of vocabulary. You can drop as much as an entire class in your result (e.g. from II.1 to II.2, or from II.2 to III) for poor presentation. For more information, see the module handbook on Blackboard.

Details of College Policies and Procedures with regards to research guidelines and ethical practices are included the School Handbook.

2.7 Coursework Requirements

Assessment, examination arrangements, and guidance can be found on Blackboard, under each individual module.

The School Handbook includes details of College's Plagiarism Policy as well as links to the Library Guides on avoiding plagiarism and the declaration text used for submitting assignments. The School also has a policy on the late submission of coursework (see p. 20).

Our policy on plagiarism: the Programme Lead will deal with Level 1 Plagiarism and the Head of Department of Italian will oversee the process for Level 2 Plagiarism.

2.8 Making your submission accessible

Students are reminded of Trinity's Accessible Information Policy. All written material (e.g. theses, essays) should use sans serif font (e.g. Calibri, Arial), minimum size 11/12. More information on accessible materials is available on the Trinity Inclusive Curriculum webpages.

2.9 How we mark your work

Lecturers will share their evaluation criteria for individual assignments. Below is a description of the bands we use to mark your work.

70-100 I (First)
60-69 II.I (Upper Second)
50-59 II.II (Lower Second)
40-49 III (Third)
30-39 F1 (Fail)
0-29 F2 (Fail)

First (excellent)

Written work will demonstrate consistent evidence of: an excellent knowledge and understanding of appropriate texts and critical engagement with scholarship/criticism/theory; highly skillful deployment of a wide range of relevant information in a well-crafted structure; arguments that manifest independent/original thought; critical evaluative ability with a keen awareness of key issues; exemplary use of accepted scholarly conventions relating to the attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; an exceptional ability to express ideas cogently in written English.

Upper Second (very good)

Written work will show consistent evidence of: a very good knowledge and understanding of appropriate texts and scholarship/criticism/theory; a notable ability to present relevant information in a clear and well thought out structure; arguments that show a very good degree of evaluative thought; competent use of accepted scholarly conventions relating to the attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; an extremely good command of written English.

Lower Second (good)

Written work will give consistent evidence of: a competent knowledge and understanding of relevant texts and scholarship/criticism/theory; engagement with the question being asked; good overall organization of ideas; proper use of scholarly conventions relating to the integration and attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; a good command of written English, with accuracy in grammar and spelling, and an appropriately academic lexical range.

Third (acceptable)

Written work will normally give evidence of: competence in relation to relevant texts and scholarship/criticism/theory; an approach to the question being asked which is not merely superficial/derivative/uncritical; no more than a minor tendency to repetition and description; awareness of scholarly conventions concerning the proper integration and attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; appropriate grammar, spelling, and lexical range.

Fail I (not acceptable)

Written work in the F1 range will normally show only a superficial knowledge of the topic and/or fail to display acceptable competence in constructing an answer to the question posed; it will be disjointed and derivative, with an unclear structure; it will show difficulty in following its own arguments. Even work which otherwise reveals basic competence may fall into the F1 category for the following deficiencies: lack of in-depth engagement with the texts; failure to observe the scholarly conventions concerning the proper integration and attribution of sources, footnoting, and bibliography; an accumulation of errors in grammar/spelling/vocabulary.

Fail II (inadequate)

Written work in the F2 range will reveal an inadequate knowledge of the topic, and/or an inability to display basic competence in constructing an answer to the question posed. Such work is also most likely to give more serious evidence of the weaknesses noted under F1.

There are penalties for late submission of written coursework without an approved extension or acceptable explanation (e.g. Medical Certificate):

- Up to two weeks' lateness incurs a deduction of 2% per day.
- After 2 weeks 0 will be awarded.

UNDELIVERED WORK

Mark for assignment not done during the year: 0%.

If you are unable to meet a deadline you should inform the module coordinator in advance. Extensions for submission of work must be sought in advance of the deadline. In exceptional circumstances, extensions of deadlines may be granted. It is the student's responsibility to obtain from the staff member involved a written note specifying the new delivery deadline.

ABSENCE AT TESTS

ESSENTIAL: Please save the dates for your tests, which are announced at the beginning of the academic year. If you miss a test, you will be marked 'zero', unless you can provide a medical certificate or evidence of other grave cause.

KEEPING COPIES OF WORK SUBMITTED

While the Department takes all reasonable care of submitted materials, it is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of all work submitted, and to produce this copy if required. This applies particularly to work done in the third and fourth years, as this work is made available to the external examiner in assessing the student's final degree result.

CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM

In Italian we take plagiarism seriously. It is important to avoid communicating other people's ideas or words as if they were your own. This is regarded as a very serious offence. We follow the College rules: https://www.tcd.ie/teaching-learning/ug-regulations/Plagiarism.php. We detect plagiarism using automatic plagiarism detection software. Please ensure that you avoid plagiarism.

2.10 Attendance Requirements

Requirements for attendance at lectures and tutorials vary between departments. In general, you are required to attend at least two-thirds of all lectures. Tutorial attendance is compulsory.

ATTENDANCE FOR ITALIAN

Attendance is strongly recommended. Lecture timetables are published through my.tcd.ie The onus lies on students to inform themselves of the dates, times and venues of their lectures and other forms of teaching by consulting these timetables. You are urged to ensure that you engage fully with the course. If you're having problems, don't drop out – see your tutor or come and talk to someone in the department. If you are not feeling well and visit a doctor, please obtain a medical certificate as evidence of inability to attend class.

2.11 Requests for Transcripts

Transcripts can be requested from Academic Registry. These provide detail of modules studied and marks attained. If you require further information that is not included in the official transcript, please contact the Departmental Office at italian@tcd.ie. Students should provide at least two weeks' notice when requesting a transcript from the Departmental Office.

To make a transcript request from the Department Office, please include the following
