Breadth is achieved by taking up a new subject (subject 2), or by taking approved modules (to the value of 20 ECTS) and/or Trinity Electives (to the value of 10 ECTS) in the SF or JS years.

All taught modules are 5 ECTS or 10 ECTS (except the Capstone @ 20 ECTS).

All programmes are required to ensure a balanced credit-load exists across semesters.

Subject 1 = subject at entry; Subject 2 = new subject chosen by student to commence in the SF year.

A minimum of 5 ECTS and a maximum of 10 ECTS in Trinity Electives is required if not taking up a New Minor Subject.

Subject 2 may be continued into the JS year (20 ECTS) and the SS year (20 ECTS) to become the minor subject at exit.

If choosing to exit with a Major with Minor award a new subject must be chosen in the SF year (20 ECTS) and continued into JS year (20 ECTS) and SS year (20 ECTS).

For the Single Honors exit route the Capstone is taken in the subject of entry (Subject 1), i.e., the major subject.

Breadth is achieved by the following: 1. The study of two subjects at entry and the opportunity to continue these two subjects in the SF year. 2. The opportunity to continue with Subject 2 and instead takes a combination of Open Modules and Trinity Electives. 3. Alternatively the student may opt not to continue with Subject 2 and instead takes a combination of Open Modules and Trinity Electives in the SF and/or JS years.

All taught modules are 5 ECTS or 10 ECTS (except the Capstone @ 20 ECTS).

All programmes are required to ensure a balanced credit-load exists across semesters.

Breadth is achieved by the study of two subjects from entry, both of which are studied at different levels to degree level.

All taught modules are 5 ECTS or 10 ECTS (except the Capstone @ 20 ECTS).

All programmes are required to ensure a balanced credit-load exists across semesters.

Subject 1 + 2 = Subjects at entry.

A minimum of 5 ECTS and a maximum of 10 ECTS in Trinity Electives is required if taking Open Modules/Trinity Electives.

If choosing to exit with a Major with Minor award Subject 2 (i.e., the minor subject) is continuously studied in the JF, SF and JS years. The minor subject is not continued into the SS year.

For the Major with Minor exit route the Capstone is taken in the subject at entry (Subject 1), i.e., the major subject.

Breadth is achieved by the study of two subjects from entry, both of which are studied at different levels to degree level.

All taught modules are 5 ECTS or 10 ECTS (except the Capstone @ 20 ECTS).

All programmes are required to ensure a balanced credit-load exists across semesters.

Subject 1 + 2 = Subjects at entry.

A minimum of 5 ECTS and a maximum of 10 ECTS in Trinity Electives is required if taking Open Modules/Trinity Electives.

If choosing to exit with a Major with Minor award Subject 2 may be continued into the JS year (20 ECTS) and the SS year (20 ECTS) to become the minor subject at exit.

For the Major with Minor exit route the Capstone is taken in the subject of entry (Subject 1), i.e., the major subject.

Breadth is achieved by the study of three or more subjects at entry.

All taught modules are 5 ECTS or 10 ECTS (except the Capstone @ 20 ECTS).

All programmes are required to ensure a balanced credit-load exists across semesters. In the SF year Subject 1, Subject 2 and Subject 3 can be any of the Subjects 1-4 studied in the JF year.

In the JS and SS years, Subject 1 and Subject 2 or Subject 3 can be any of the Subjects 1-4 studied in the JF and SF years.

A minimum of 5 ECTS and a maximum of 10 ECTS in Trinity Electives is required if taking Open Modules/Trinity Electives.

If choosing to exit with a Major with Minor award Subject 2 (i.e., the minor subject) is continuously studied in the JF, SF and JS years. The minor subject is not continued into the SS year.

For the Major with Minor exit route the Capstone is taken in Subject 1 (i.e., the major subject) which has been studied over the four years of the programme.

Breadth is achieved by the study of three or more subjects at entry.

A multi-disciplinary entry routes offers a multi-disciplinary exit route (award) when three or more subjects are studied in all years of the programme.

All taught modules are 5 ECTS or 10 ECTS (except the Capstone @ 20 ECTS).

All programmes are required to ensure a balanced credit-load exists across semesters.

In the SF year Subject 1 and Subject 2 can be any of the subjects studied in the JF year.

In the JS and SS years, Subject 1 and Subject 2 can be any one of the subjects studied in the SF year.

For the Multi-disciplinary exit route the Capstone may be shared across subjects which have been studied over the four years of the programme.

Breadth is achieved by taking Trinity Elective modules (to the value of 10 ECTS) in the SF and/or JS years, and open modules (to the value of 20 ECTS) to be allocated across the four years of the programme (years 1 to 4), as determined by the School.

All taught modules are 5 ECTS or 10 ECTS (except the Capstone @ 20 ECTS).

All programmes are required to ensure a balanced credit-load exists across semesters.

The Capstone, weighted at 20 ECTS, is included in the final year.

* A total of 60 ECTS is required in each of the SF and JS years.

Breadth is incorporated into the core curriculum and supplemented by the study of Open Modules and/or Trinity Electives in the JF, SF and JS years.

Students will take Open Modules to the value of 50 ECTS across the first three years of the programme and Trinity Electives to the value of 10 ECTS in the third year.

All taught modules are 5 ECTS or 10 ECTS (except the Capstone @ 20 ECTS).

All programmes are required to ensure a balanced credit-load exists across semesters.

The Capstone, weighted at 20 ECTS, is included in the final year.

Breadth is achieved through interprofessional learning.

Clinical programmes will ensure that the agreed curriculum principles are aligned with the programme architecture.

All taught modules are 5 ECTS or 10 ECTS (except the Capstone @ 20 ECTS).

All programmes are required to ensure a balanced credit-load exists across semesters.

The programme architecture enables the delivery of the graduate attributes and encourages interprofessional learning, while meeting the requirements of the accrediting and statutory bodies.
