Course Details for Centre for Deaf Studies

Course Code	UBLS-DEAS-1F UBLS-DEAS-2F
Course Title	Bachelor in Deaf Studies (B.St.Su.)
Course URL	https://www.tcd.ie/slscs/undergraduate/deaf-studies-bachelor/
Mission Statement	The Centre for Deaf Studies, University of Dublin, is committed to excellence in both innovative research and teaching in the area of Deaf Studies, to the enhancement of the learning of each of its students and to an inclusive college community with equality of access for all in an ISL/English bilingual and multicultural environment. The Centre will continue to disseminate its knowledge and expertise for the benefit of the Deaf community, wider society and the scientific community.
Programme Aims	The Bachelor in Deaf Studies programme aims to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Deliver skill competency in Irish Sign Language to level C1 (receptive/comprehension) and B2 (productive/expressed) as outlined by the Council of European Framework of References for Languages (CEFR). The CEFR maps language competence across six broad categories ranging from A1 (beginners) to C2 (highly proficient across a range of high-level domains). The CEFR serves two major functions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Reporting: it adds information about a learner’s experience and concrete evidence of achievements in their language(s). This coincides with the EU’s interest in facilitating individual mobility and relating regional and national qualifications to internationally agreed standards; 2) Pedagogical: it makes learning languages more transparent to learners and helps develop their capacity for self-reflection and self-assessment and assume greater responsibility for learning (i.e. learner autonomy). • Develop knowledge about the socio-cultural issues that impact on Deaf people in society through a broad range of programmes that reflect the thematic issues of relevance to the Deaf community/ies in Ireland and internationally. • Offer appropriate scope for professional development within the specific domains of working with the Deaf community/ies and depending on specific path choice, competence as an Irish Sign Language-English interpreter or as an Irish Sign Language teacher.
Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this programme, students will be able to: LO1. Demonstrate fluency in Irish Sign Language. LO2. Demonstrate effective communication skills with the full range of relevant stakeholders, in the professional liaisons and in the larger community. LO3. Critically research, interpret, reflect upon and apply the evolving theoretical knowledge base in Deaf Studies and Applied Linguistics and relate this body of knowledge to evidence-based professional decision-marking. LO4. Demonstrate professional autonomy (including self and peer assessment), accountability, responsibility and a commitment to ethical action and social responsibility in professional practice.
Course Description	The Bachelor in Deaf Studies (B.St.Su.) is a four-year full time course leading to an honours degree. The course provides a comprehensive introduction to the Deaf community/ies and Irish Sign Language (ISL) for those wishing to work with signers. No prior knowledge of ISL is required for entry. The degree also draws on a multidisciplinary approach to introduce a broad spectrum of knowledge, skills and competencies related to Deaf Communities, Deaf History and Culture. In the sophister year (Years 3 and 4), profession-specific competencies are in focus for those who select pathways to ISL teaching or ISL-English Interpreting.

Semester/Term Taught	Michaelmas Term
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 11 Indicative hours = 150
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: Dr John Bosco Conama Lecturer: Mr Senan Dunne
Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students will be able to: LO1. Understand about the users of Irish Sign Language and the positionalities of Deaf communities locally and globally. LO2. Describe the major philosophical influences on responses to deafness (e.g. legal, religious, educational, rehabilitation, normalisation, eugenics, human rights, socio-cultural views, medical responses to deafness, Deafhood, Deaf Gain).
Module Learning Aims	The learning aims of this module are to familiarize students with the presence of Irish deaf community and the existence of Irish Sign Language in Irish life.
Module Content	This module introduces students to the range of ways in which deafness and Deaf people are categorised - by medical personnel, by hearing people, and by the Deaf community. We examine the variety of societal responses to deafness over time. We begin with references to deaf people in ancient times and trace changing attitudes to deaf people, signed languages and Deafhood up until contemporary times. We also explore the notion of Deaf culture and community and consider the objective symbols and behavioural norms of this culture. This module introduces a continuum of perspectives of deafness, and examines the range of practical and political implications of these views. We also consider the range of implications that this can have on a Deaf person's self-image. A range of views from Deaf deafened and hard of hearing people which have been pre-recorded are shared over the course of this module. This module also considers different ways of being Deaf in the modern world. Major organisations from the Irish Deaf community are given attention, while at the same time the relationship between the developed and the developing worlds, with special emphasis on the global experience of deafness and deaf communities are considered.

Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students will be able to: LO1. Assess the structure of the Irish educational system for the Deaf LO2. Appraise bilingual education as it pertains to the situation of Deaf and hard-of-hearing children LO3. Define educational philosophical approaches LO4. Synthesize the main policies and practices applied to Deaf education in Ireland and internationally from earlier times to the present day LO5. Critique the approaches to Deaf education globally.
Module Learning Aims	The module aims to give students considerable knowledge in Deaf Education which proves an invaluable insight into their professional work when it comes to dealing with the social, economic, political and personal issues in the lives of deaf people. The module also encourages students to self-examine / self-reflect on how they became educated in various contexts.
Module Content	This module explores a range of issues relevant to the delivery of education to Deaf people today. The focus is predominantly on the Irish context and traces the evolution of educational provision from the establishment of educational services for the Deaf through to the current date. Topics for consideration include the manual-oral debate, bilingualism for deaf children, mainstreaming, educational support services (visiting teachers service, home tutors' scheme), the educational review process, the voice of the Deaf community in shaping educational policy, accessing information about educational options and the right to choice of parents, preschool provision, primary and post-primary education and access to the third level.

Module Name	Modality and Second Language Learning
ECTS Weighting	5
Semester/Term Taught	Michaelmas Term
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 44 Indicative hours = 100
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: Dr Sarah Sheridan Lecturer: Dr Sarah Sheridan
Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students will be able to: LO1. Describe similarities and differences between first language acquisition, second language acquisition and bilingualism; LO2. Discuss key theories and issues relating to bilingualism and second language acquisition and their relevance in second language research and teaching; LO3. Describe the hallmarks of the nativist and behaviourist approaches to language acquisition and their relevance in second language acquisition; LO4. Discuss ways in which theories of bilingualism/ second language acquisition have developed over the last century; LO5. Describe key issues relating to sign language acquisition; LO6. Discuss principal findings which have emerged from research on second language acquisition of sign language users.
Module Learning Aims	This module aims to introduce students to key issues in second language acquisition (SLA). The course will cover a range of theoretical perspectives on second language teaching and learning, research on SLA and key issues relating to the language acquisition of sign languages. We will contrast deaf and hard-of-hearing language users, who have a signed language as a first or second language, with hearing language users, particularly those who learn a sign language, or are spoken-sign language multilinguals. The backdrop to the discussion will entail review of the major theoretical positions on second language acquisition (e.g. behaviourism vs nativism, the critical period hypothesis, individual and group differences) and will draw on research on spoken and sign language users. This course also includes reading seminars, which students will be expected to participate in fully, based on a more detailed course outline and reading list distributed at the beginning of the course.
Module Content	a) Introduce theories related to language acquisition b) Consider the context of Deaf children born to hearing parents and the importance of early interventions c) Parent perspectives (Sharing the Journey) d) Typical language acquisition pathways - Deaf children born to Deaf parents e) Discussion of hearing children of Deaf adults (CODAs) f) Sign language learning in adulthood g) Individual differences (age, gender, motivation, etc.) and how they relate (or not) to language learning

Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students should be able to: LO1. Discuss critically a range of introductory topics in linguistics. LO2. Analyse the structure of spoken and signed languages. LO3. Identify major concepts in linguistics related to the language modalities. LO4. Evaluate different accounts of the relationship between language and thought. LO5. Apply knowledge and understanding of linguistics to engage with linguistic data.
Module Learning Aims	This module is an introduction to linguistics. It gives a general knowledge of each area of linguistics drawing from a range of spoken and signed languages. Its aim is to provide the students who have no previous knowledge of linguistics with a background in core areas of the field – phonetics, phonology, syntax, morphology, semantics, and their acquisition. The module is divided in three parts: the first part is an introduction to the field of linguistics, the second part is concerned with the structure of natural languages, and the third part is related to language modality, with particular attention to sign language and gesture.
Module Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What is Linguistics? - Brain and Language - Phonetics: the sounds of language - Phonology: the sound patterns of language - Morphology: the study of words - Syntax: from words to phrases - Semantics - Pragmatics - Sign languages and Sign Language Linguistics

Module Code	LIU11013
Module Name	First Language Acquisition
ECTS Weighting	5
Semester/Term Taught	Semester 2/Hilary Term
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 22 (1 term, 2 hours per week) Indicative hours = 100
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: Prof Breffni O'Rourke Lecturer: Prof Breffni O'Rourke
Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students should be able to: LO1. Debate historically influential theories of first language acquisition LO2. Explain some central concepts in the linguistic domains of phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, and pragmatics. Describe central aspects of first language acquisition in relation to each of the major domains of language. LO3. Describe central aspects of first language acquisition and development in relation to several developmental stages. LO4. Discuss the characteristics of bilingual and multilingual first language acquisition, and the differences between them.
Module Learning Aims	This module will introduce students to central issues in language acquisition and development. The aim is to equip students with an understanding of the nature of non-pathological language acquisition and development in various domains, and an appreciation of the rates and routes of normal language acquisition.
Module Content	After a general introduction, the module deals with the principal domains of language acquisition: sounds, word meanings, sentence grammar, word grammar, and communication. It then deals with the issues of bilingual and multilingual acquisition, individual variation, acquisitional stages, and language universals.
Recommended Reading List	Required textbook: to be confirmed. Some references will be supplied during the module
Assessment Details	Take-home test (100%) Students are required to complete a take-home test during the Semester assessment period. Date: TBA

Module Code	DFU22003
Module Name	Introduction to Sign Linguistics 1
ECTS Weighting	5
Semester/Term Taught	Michaelmas Term
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 22 Indicative hours = 100
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: Dr Isabelle Heyerick Lecturer: Dr Isabelle Heyerick
Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students should be able to: LO1. Understand the history and ongoing development of sign language linguistics as a field LO2. Understand what makes up the phonetics and phonology of signed languages LO3. Identify the 5 phonological parameters that make up a sign LO4. Identify the major NMFs that occur in ISL and how NMFs co-occur with other manual elements in ISL LO5. Describe the difference between mouthings and mouth gestures LO6. Explain the major categories of verbs in ISL LO7. Recognise the use of signing space in a signed language, with reference to verb agreement and classifier predicates LO8. Recognise how manner and aspect function in ISL LO9. Demonstrate ability to gloss ISL texts accurately in ELAN LO10. Describe the role of iconicity and phonetic features in ISL lexicon LO11. Demonstrate the way in which new signs develop LO12. Outline the historical context and understand the importance of the sociolinguistic context for ISL
Module Learning Aims	This module guides the student towards a basic understanding of the linguistic structures of signed languages, with particular reference to the indigenous sign language of Ireland, Irish Sign Language and its sociolinguistic context. This module introduces the basic descriptive parameters of sign languages. Focus is particularly on the phonetic, phonological, morphological, and morpho-syntactic breakdown of sign languages. Topics covered include analysis of the basic parameters of a sign, compounding processes in ISL, verb categories in ISL, non-manual features, and use of space in ISL. Across these topics attention is devoted to sociolinguistic aspects. We work with the Irish Sign Language corpus to identify authentic examples.
Module Content	Week 1 An Introduction to sign language linguistics and sociolinguistics Week 2 Introducing ELAN, gloss annotations, and the Signs of Ireland Corpus Week 3 Phonetics & Phonology Week 4 More on Phonetics & Phonology: focus on non-manual features: mouthings Week 5 Non-manual features: phonology, phonetics and morphosyntax: mouth gestures, face, body. Week 6 Morphology Week 7 Reading Week Week 8 Morphology: verb classes in ISL, number, aspect, CL predicates, manner Week 9 More on Verbs & Marking number, aspect, manner Week 10 . In-class presentation Week 11 Practicum: ELAN Week 12 The lexicon Revision

Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students should be able to: LO1. Search and annotate texts accurately in ELAN LO2. Demonstrate a basic understanding of Mental Space Theory LO3. Identify and demonstrate how time can be marked in ISL LO4. Understand the importance of depiction for ISL LO5. Explain the basic syntactic make up of ISL phrases LO6. Describe features that are evident in narrative structure in ISL with regards to role shift, constructed dialogue, constructed action LO7. Explain a deep and analytical understanding of the socio-cultural and sociolinguistic context that signed languages operate within, reference to ISL. LO8. Identify the range of literature that exists in signed languages linguistics, with reference to ISL. LO9. Relate the historical and sociolinguistics context for ISL past, current, and future development.
Module Learning Aims	This module builds on content from An Introduction to Sign Linguistics 1 (DFU22003), introducing students to sign language sociolinguistics, the morpho-syntax, semantics, and pragmatics of ISL. Topics for discussion include the identification of word order in ISL, use of topic-comment constructions, question marking, negation, reflexives and reciprocals in ISL, and passive constructions. Other subjects addressed include iconicity and gesture and their relationship to signed languages. This module further expands on specific sociolinguistic aspects of Irish Sign Language. These include linguistic variation associated with gender, generation, sexual orientation, regional usage, language acquisition/exposure/ deprivation. The students are introduced to concepts such as multilingualism, multimodality, translanguaging and are invited to broaden their understanding of who are sign language “users”. We work with the Irish Sign Language corpus to identify authentic examples.
Module Content	Week 1 Outline for term. Introducing Mental Space Theory and its application in Sign Language Linguistics. Week 2 Simultaneity in Sign Languages; Practical session – using ELAN Week 3 Marking time Week 4 Depiction in ISL Week 5 End of Module information and ELAN practice Week 6 Syntax, constituents, and prepositions Week 7 Reading Week. ECTS Weighting	5
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 22 Indicative hours = 100
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: Dr Isabelle Heyerick Lecturer: Dr Isabelle Heyerick
Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, students will be able to: LO1. Explain what interpreting is. LO2. Explain what translation is. LO3. Identify the different working domains of signed language interpreters LO4. Articulate how the domain of sign language interpreting is positioned as a profession and academic discipline within the field of Translation and Interpreting Studies LO5. Use and demonstrate understanding of key concepts and terminology related to Translation and Interpreting Studies LO6. Prepare and deliver a presentation on an agreed topic to demonstrate confidence presenting in front of an audience. LO7. Reflect on the strategic nature of interpreting and on the cognitive linguistic decision-making process involved in interpreting.
Module Learning Aims	This module introduces students to current thought on translation and interpretation, with respect to both spoken and signed languages. It outlines the common models used to situate interpreting (international vs. community-based or conference vs. dialogue interpreting) and how interpreting as an activity can be described taking into account the interpreting mode, interpreting setting, and directionality. It positions sign language interpreting within the broad spectrum of Interpreting and Translation Studies. Seminars will focus on exploring the literature with respect to interpretation philosophy and practice, and consider the practical applications of these findings for sign language interpreters working in different domains - education, medical, legal, etc. We will consider the role of the interpreter and ethical issues which impact all parties involved. There will also be the opportunity for in-class presentations to develop skill in this area (presenting / performing to an audience).
Module Content	Outline of term. Introduce the end of module assignment. Introduction: What is Translation and Interpreting Studies & why should you care? Describing interpreter So (do) you want to be an interpreter Situating signed language interpreting within T&I Studies. What do we talk about when we talk about interpreting ? The working domains of a signed language interpreter. Reading Week. In-class presentations. Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, students will be able to: LO1. Critically consider the notion of equivalence at work level, clause level, sentence level, grammatical level and discourse level. LO2. Articulate and exemplify the impediments to attaining absolute equivalence between language pairs. LO3. Discuss the linguistic and cultural challenges of working in a variety of interpreted domains LO4. Demonstrate the ability to prepare an interlingual synopsis talk (English source language, ISL target language). LO5. Demonstrate the ability to prepare an interlingual synopsis talk (ISL source language, English target language). LO6. Define and identify interpreting strategies and reflect on triggers and motivations related to linguistic interpreting decisions. LO7. Understand how to analyse an interpreting performance. LO8. Analyse an interpreting performance.
Module Learning Aims	This module builds on the knowledge gained from Translation and Interpreting, Philosophy and Practice 1 (DFU22005).
Module Content	Students are introduced to the interpreting process from a linguistic cognitive and interactional situated lens. This lens is used to explore topics such as equivalence, interpreting strategies, decision-making processes, the goal of an interpretation (product, process, or product and process orientation), and triggers and motivations. Students will learn how to analyse an interpreting performance using the interpreting models discussed. Time will be allocated for the preparation of the interlingual synopsis task and reflection on the challenges encountered. Analysis of interpreting performances will form a central component of this module, relating theory to practice. Outline of term. Introduce the end of module assignment. Revisit models of interpreting The interpreter's love - hate relationship with equivalence. Spoken & signed languages and the issues regarding equivalence. Module Name	Ethics 2
ECTS Weighting	5
Semester/Term Taught	Hilary Term
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 22 Indicative hours = 150
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: Dr John Bosco Conama Lecturer: Dr John Bosco Conama
Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, a student will demonstrate an ability to: LO1. Identify and reflect on personal values LO2. Compare these values with Codes of Ethics and Deaf community values LO3. Critically evaluate the standards of professional responsibility, conduct and behaviours entailed within the Codes of Ethics of selected organisations discussed in the module. LO4. Reflect on decision-making skills relative to specific ethical dilemmas.
Module Learning Aims	The module aims to advance students with skills to handle real-life scenarios in ethics to deal with ethical issues in professional life.
Module Content	This module builds on concepts developed in Ethics 1. In Ethics 2, we focus on specific outcomes of behaviours, values, and decision-making in professional contexts relevant to the Deaf community. The ethical aspects of various topics will be explored as well as issues linked to specific professional roles such as interpreting and teaching within the Deaf community.

ECTS Weighting	5
Semester/Term Taught	Michaelmas Term
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 22 Indicative hours = 100
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: Dr Isabelle Heyerick Lecturer: Dr Isabelle Heyerick
Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, students will be able to: LO1. Demonstrate understanding of the aims of and differences between qualitative, quantitative, and mixed methods research, descriptive and exploratory research, primary and secondary data. LO2. Distinguish between various data collection methods (experimental, semi-experimental, observations, surveys, interviews, desktop studies). LO3. Formulate a research topic, research question(s), a research rationale, and a critical reflection of the researcher's positionality. LO4. Devise appropriate ethical approaches in the conduct of research. LO5. Specify guidelines appropriate to researching and/or sign language communities, or communities on the intersection of plural vulnerabilities. LO6. Design a research proposal (preparation for the Capstone project) that includes draft research questions, research rationale, researcher's positionality, research methods, data collection instruments and approach to data analysis. LO7. Compile a sample Research Ethics application if the project's design requires this step.
Module Learning Aims	The module has three aims: (i) to introduce students to the key principles that constitute good research (integrity, transparency, scientific rigour, researcher positionality), (ii) to familiarise students with various main research methods and related basic concepts, (iii) to provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to design a research plan that takes into consideration the principles of good research and adopts appropriate approaches for engaging in research with/about Deaf and/or sign language communities, or communities on the intersection of plural vulnerabilities.

Module Name	Deafhood and Deaf Culture
ECTS Weighting	5
Semester/Term Taught	Michaelmas Term
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 22 Indicative hours = 150
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: Dr John Bosco Conama Lecturer: Dr John Bosco Conama
Learning Outcomes	Upon successful completion of this course, a student will be able to: LO1. Define the critical elements of Deaf culture: language, principles, values, rules, and traditions and compare it with other linguistic cultures LO2. Define audism, linguisticism, and other forms of discrimination LO3. Identify the systemic effects of discrimination on Deaf people's access and inclusion LO4. Describe the boundaries, commonalities and differences within Deafhood LO5. Examine the diverse and intersecting personal and group identities within the Deaf community LO6. Recognise the significance of the use of signed languages among the Deaf population, including language use among people who identify as Deafblind
Module Learning Aims	The module aims to equip students with a reasonable cultural understanding to deal with cultural and linguistic issues in professional life
Module Content	The module familiarises students with key aspects of Deafhood and Deaf Culture, equipping them with the knowledge, skills and socio-cultural perspective needed to work as a professional with Deaf communities.

ECTS Weighting	10
Semester/Term Taught	Hilary Term
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 22 Indicative hours = 150
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: Dr John Bosco Conama Lecturer: Dr John Bosco Conama
Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students will be able to: LO1. Appraise policy regarding the use of ISL on Irish and British television and other forms of visual media LO2. Appraise policy relating to the provision of subtitling on Irish and British television and other forms of visual media LO3. Describe the guidelines for subtitling for the Deaf and hard of hearing developed by the BBC LO4. Evaluate how State policy impacts Deaf and hard of hearing viewers in Ireland LO5. Debate how the media frames views on Deaf people and the impact of this on the Deaf community
Module Learning Aims	The module aims to advance students with general knowledge and insight of how the media and deaf people interact, as an essential part of their professional competence.
Module Content	This module explores the role of the media in shaping perceptions on deaf people and it also examines the roles that Deaf people play in the media. Attention will be given to Deaf literary characters, the portrayal of Deaf characters in film/ TV and the involvement of Deaf people in developing Deaf community television and accessible programming in Ireland and abroad. This discussion will be embedded in a context of broadcasting policy.

ECTS Weighting	10
Semester/Term Taught	Hilary Term
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 44 Indicative hours = 200
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: Teresa Lynch Lecturers: Dr Isabelle Heyerick and Teresa Lynch
Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students will be able to: LO1. Prepare effectively for a consecutive interpreting assignment LO2. Analyse source language discourse, identifying core and supporting themes LO3. Reformulate message (in L1 and L2 respectively) using both consecutive and simultaneous interpreting modes LO4. Reflect and evaluate on their own performance using interpreting models covered in lectures /self-study LO5. Evaluate the most appropriate interpreting mode for specific contexts, taking account of the function and the context of the event LO6. Manage the social factors that influence an interpreter's activities (e.g. turn-taking, overlapping turns, power relations, etc.) in bilateral settings in a non-dominating manner. LO7. Critically evaluate the impact that cultural difference plays in interpreted events (e.g. through appropriate interpretation of culturally-biased components/ use of culturally appropriate interaction within the interpreted environment such as gaining attention, etc.)
Module Learning Aims	This module introduces students to community interpreting, with specific emphasis on public service contexts. Students will develop the base-line skills necessary for consecutive interpreting; such as shadowing, paraphrasing, split attention exercises and note-taking, before applying these skills to monolateral and bilateral settings. As the course continues the simultaneous interpreting mode will be introduced and students will consider when each mode is most effective and efficient in terms of accuracy and functionality in a given domain. Students will apply knowledge of interpreting models covered in this module to the analysis of their interpreted performances

Mandatory/Optional Unit	Mandatory for all Strands
Module Personnel	Coordinator Dr John Bosco Conama Mentors: Dr John Bosco Conama, Carmel Grehan, Dr Isabelle Heyerick, Teresa Lynch and Dr Sarah Sheridan
Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module students will be able to: LO1. Describe and adhere to policies, procedures, protocols and guidelines on professional conduct, health & safety, and risk management in the placement organisation. LO2. Demonstrate appropriate professional conduct and competencies, under supervision, when interpreting, teaching or engaged in other activities in the placement organisation. LO3. Demonstrate ethical behaviour relevant to their professional pathway, including matters related to recording-keeping and confidentiality LO4. Demonstrate appropriate professional conduct and communication skills during interactions with all stakeholders during placement LO5. Engage in reflective practice, apply self-appraisal to develop professional conduct and competence and respond to feedback received from mentors LO6. Apply constructive feedback received from mentors to their own practice
Module Content	This module consists of supervised placement in a relevant organisation that provides services to/for the Deaf community. This may include, for example, an interpreting agency, a Deaf community organisation, a school or college with a cohort of deaf students, an evening class of students learning ISL, or another appropriate organisation. Mentoring sessions with the service providers or representative organisations. A service-learning focus will be taken throughout.

Module Name	Capstone (Research Project)
ECTS Weighting	20
Semester/Term Taught	Michaelmas and Hilary Terms
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 30 hours with supervisor Indicative hours = 125
Mandatory/Optional Unit	Mandatory for all Strands
Module Personnel	Coordinator Dr John Bosco Conama Supervisors: Dr John Bosco Conama, Carmel Grehan, Dr Isabelle Heyerick, Teresa Lynch and Dr Sarah Sheridan
Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module students will be able to: LO1. Demonstrate in-depth knowledge on a particular topic LO2. Develop and implement a research methodology, LO3. Demonstrate critical evaluation skills regarding the process and the outcome of the research LO4. Demonstrate skills in reporting research according to academic conventions.
Module Learning Aims	a) To equip students with the skills needed to undertake and complete their Capstone Research Project b) To develop a lifelong learning approach to research and development c) To introduce students to the application of a research methodology, to the design of a research project and to appropriate methods of data collection and analysis. d) To equip students with basic skills to support their development as researchers.
Module Content	There are two routes to developing this research project: (1) Students may participate in research projects currently undertaken by staff members, addressing their own research methodology, design, research questions and data collection instruments in that area. (2) Students will be provided with a list of project areas currently pursued by staff. (3) Students may generate their own research project (within the Deaf Studies discipline) and complete their project under the supervision of a staff member, subject to the availability of an appropriate supervisor. It should be noted that if human participants are involved in the data collection stage, students are required to obtain research ethics approval for their research project through the School's, Research Ethics Committee. A fast-track process is available for projects involving anonymous online surveys as the sole data collection instrument. Students will be required to sign up for an area of research interest/research supervisor. Students will meet the designated supervisor over the course of the academic year, and the schedule to be determined in consultation between the supervisor and the student.

Contact Hours	Direct hours = 22 Indicative hours = 150
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: : Dr. John Bosco Conama Lecturers: Dr John Bosco Conama and various guest lecturers
Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students will be able to: LO1. Critically discuss contemporary issues in Deaf studies LO2. Synthesise major theoretical perspectives from Deaf Studies for specific sub-domains (e.g. Deaf education, Equality studies issues, interpreting studies, linguistics of signed languages, applied sign linguistics issues). LO3. Analyse key theoretical underpinnings and practical consequences of key contemporary policies in Deaf Studies
Module Learning Aims	This module aims at the development of critical analysis of contemporary research topics that affect Deaf communities
Module Content	This module presents contemporary topical issues relevant to Deaf community members from an interdisciplinary perspective. Topics considered include interpreting provision, interpreting theory, social policy issues (e.g. access to health care, recognition of signed languages, etc.), educational policy and practice issues, human rights agenda, etc. The module will take a seminar format and the topics selected will be influenced by class participants. Session one sets the scene for this: we will identify and select contemporary, relevant topics that are regarded as needing to be critically debated.

Module Code	DFU44006
Module Name	Advanced Interpreting
ECTS Weighting	10
Semester/Term Taught	Hilary Term
Contact Hours	Direct hours = 44 Indicative hours = 200
Module Personnel	Module Co-ordinator: : Dr. Sarah Sheridan Lecturers: Carmel Grehan and Sarah Sheridan
Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students will be able to: LO1. Interpret an extended piece of prepared or unprepared text simultaneously from English to ISL LO2. Interpret an extended piece of prepared or unprepared text simultaneously from ISL to English LO3. Prepare and engage in bilateral interpreting work (ISL-English-ISL) in live settings LO4. Apply interpreting strategies in practice LO5. Critically analyse performance while applying the literature in the field of interpreting and translation studies to own performance LO6. Engage in an active task orientated and self-directed approach to their own learning
Module Learning Aims	This module builds on the skill-set developed in the Introduction to Interpreting module. We firstly introduce students to simultaneous interpreting in monolateral settings (ISL-English and English-ISL), working towards longer and more complex monologues. This involves the fine-tuning of simultaneous interpreting skills, namely; listening and attention, analysis and memory skills, productive language skills in the target language and coordination of efforts. The module will work on capacity-building for preparation of texts to reduce cognitive burden while on task, and the development of reflective analytical skills in order to develop metalinguistic awareness. In the second half of the semester we move on to more advanced issues in simultaneous interpreting context. Students will focus on improving skill in identifying meaning units, identifying appropriate target language constructions, managing and modifying pace, intonation and register in simultaneous settings, as well as vocabulary development and effort management. We transition from working with highly prepared texts to unprepared data. This involves the student carrying out bilateral interpreting work (ISL-English-ISL) in live settings.
Module Content	a) Monolateral interpreting: Develop capacity in interpreting extending texts from ISL-English and English-ISL in unilateral settings using both prepared and unprepared content b) Bilateral interpreting: Engage in bilateral interpreting work (ISL-English-ISL), clarifying and repairing when required while building rapport with clients c) Interpersonal communication: Communication in the interpreting setting; team work and managing client expectations d) Professional conduct: Prepare for interpreting assignments, demonstrate professional conduct, respond appropriately to linguistic and ethical dilemmas e) Professional Development: Identify goals, track progress and evaluate

Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this module, students will be able to: LO1. Explain principles of language learning relevant to students learning ISL as described in the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). LO2. Appraise own language proficiency using the European Language Portfolio (ELP) LO3. Appraise a range of teaching methods approaches and methods introduced over the course of the module LO4. Justify a set of methods and assessments for teaching ISL in a range of teaching contexts, including cultural input LO5. Appraise and apply theories of assessment to a range of teaching contexts LO6. Outline the qualifications and requirements for becoming an ISL assessor
Module Learning Aims	a) Introduces students to a variety of teaching methods and assessment in the field of ISL instruction b) Explores the teaching philosophies underlying each approach, including methods that have been applied to the teaching of spoken languages. Examines key issues linked to assessment, including the rationale behind assessment, who assesses, what is being assessed and why, scoring, and the social and political implications of assessment.
